Dear

Re: The Bradford & Bingley plc Compensation Scheme
In The Upper Tribunal (Tax and Chancery Chamber) - Financial Services
Cases BB/0001/2011/Onwards

Following the publication of my Revised Assessment Notice on 14 March 2011, you wrote to the Upper Tribunal submitting a Form FTC3. According to the rules of the Tribunal, I am now responding to your complaint.

I enclose a copy of my Statement of Case, which I have delivered today to the Upper Tribunal, and am sending to you in accordance with paragraph 4(4) of Schedule 3 to The Tribunal Procedure (Upper Tribunal) Rules 2008.

The Upper Tribunal has directed that you may (if so advised) send or deliver a written reply to the Upper Tribunal so that it is received by the Upper Tribunal within 28 days of the date of this letter. The London address of the Upper Tribunal (Tax and Chancery Chamber) is 45 Bedford Square, London, WC1B 3DN.

Paragraph 5(2) of Schedule 3 to The Tribunal Procedure (Upper Tribunal) Rules 2008 provides that your reply must:

- (a) state the grounds on which you rely in your reference;
- (b) identify all matters contained in my Statement of Case which you dispute; and
- (c) state your reasons for disputing those matters.

Please send a copy of any reply to me at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, 7 More London Riverside, London, SE1 2RT.

Yours sincerely

Peter Clokey
